

Be a Better Commissioner!

Attend the 2007 Northern California Commissioner's College.
Saturday, February 27, 2010

Where?

Adobe Systems Conference Center
345 Park Avenue
San Jose, California
(Near convergence of highways 87, 280 and 680 & just a mile or two from 101)
[parking in garage under building]

What?

Seven Training Tracks with over 30 Courses for every level of Commissioner and every level of Commissioner experience.

Cost?

$30.00 early registration, through February 7
$35.00 through February 21
$40.00 at the door

Price includes catered lunch, snacks and course handouts. Register early for lowest cost

All participants should have taken a BSA Youth Protection class and those taking Basic Training should have viewed the video Unit Commissioner's Orientation: Helping Units Succeed.

Schedule.

8:00	Registration Opens
8:00 - 9:00	Gathering & Social Time - Breakfast Snacks
9:00 - 9:50	Scott Sorrells National Commissioner Service Chairman
9:50	Deans' Orientation
10:00 - 12:00	Morning Classes
12:00 - 1:30	Lunch
	Mark Wappel National Commissioner Service Staff Advisor
1:30 - 4:30	Afternoon Classes
4:30 - 5:00	Graduation & Departure

Learn how to better do your job
Prepare yourself for higher levels of responsibility
Earn the distinction of being an Associate, Bachelor,
Master, or Doctor of Commissioner Science.
Learn from your fellow Commissioners.
Share ideas with your fellow Commissioners.

For The Latest Information & to register, Go to the Nor Cal Commissioner Resource Site: www.norcalcommissioner.org and click on "College 2010"